So Jeanette, I hope I spelled your name right. If I decided to write you a letter instead of a fellow sergeant - or is the sergeant-major? Anyway Hi! How are you? I'm about three years (Poor me!) behind everyone else in getting to Beach. You already (Lucky Fielding) When you come up to see your folks you better come down to see us. Oh! I forgot to know your address. Ha Ha Ha, I decided to write you instead of sending you a card. You can't imagine how much I enjoyed your letter. Thanks a million for the snapshots. Gee, you look swell in your uniform. Your graduation picture is also very good. I'm glad you like your job. Sounds like a swell deal. Wish I had one. Keep 'em coming. Love & Kisses Always Your Friend Estelle Peach

P.S. Write me a long letter. I'm lonesome. Tell me all the latest gossip. Have you seen Red Dooley lately? I'll be glad to see him when he comes home. Have you heard from Ruth Ann Summers? Where is she now? Where are you now? Are you still in the Army? Are you still in the Air Corps? Are you still in the Air Corps? Are you still in the Air Corps

We may never pass this way again . . .

This, my friend, is only the beginning
Such a sweet beginning, too
Now, at last, I see a chance of winning
See a chance of breaking through

Who can say today may live in history
As long as there's a history book
Yesterday, the world was still a mystery
Today it has a new and different look

So, my friend, let's send the old world spinning
Change is what I recommend
Come on, my friend, let's see this sweet beginning
Through to the happy end.

And today —
Soon it will have dropped into the past
Who can make it last for me
Time goes by too fast for me
Nothing ever stays . . .

The past and present
wilt
I have filled them
emptied them
And proceed
to fill my next fold
of the future

I'll do what I want to do,
So much in life to see me through,
Be what I want to be, be strong
And tell the world I'm free.
I see myself in the mirror of life,
Searchin' to find myself and who I am,
So many roads for me to choose,
So many ways for me to win or lose,
For this is my life!

We are the music-makers,
And we are the dreamers of dreams,
Wandering by lone sea-breakers,
And sitting by desolate streams,
World-losers and world for sakers,
On whom the pale moon gleams:
Yet we are the movers and shakers
Of the world forever, it seems.

SENIOR TRIP

In February, the Seniors, accompanied by Ms. Ruane and Ms. Mannhaupt, went on their class trip to a ski resort in Massachusetts. Our graceful(?) skiers enjoyed swimming in the heated pool and day and night skiing.

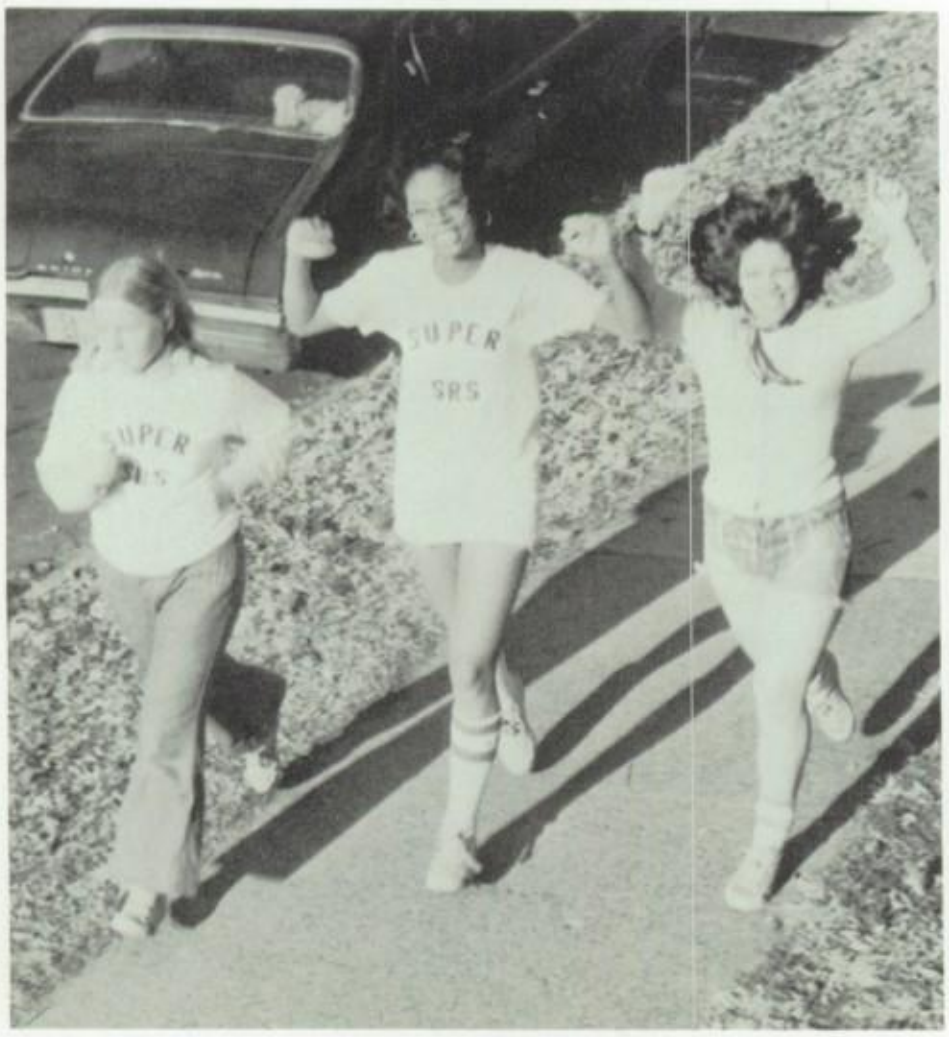
EVENTS

And this is my moment
My destiny calls me
And though it may be just once in a lifetime
I'm gonna do great things . . .



In November, students from all grades participated in the first Cabrini Olympics. Events included relay races, basketball, sit ups, chin ups, a grueling marathon run, and a "tug of peace." Congratulations to the Sophomore Class, who won the Olympics after a big victory in the chin ups, and to the Junior High, who showed tremendous school spirit and a great combined effort in the marathon. Many thanks to Mr. Kruegler, who supervised the activities.

PARTIES

CHRISTMAS

ASSEMBLY

On the last school day before vacation, students from all grades joined in celebration of the Christmas spirit. On the opposite page, Clotilde Ibarra assists Soraya Alfonso in lighting the Christmas candle. Opposite right is Mabel Cabello, asking "Where Is Love?" in her portrayal of a lonely young teenager searching for the true meaning of Christmas. The remaining photos show other scenes from the play and Santa joining Ms. Battelli at the piano to sing Christmas Carols.

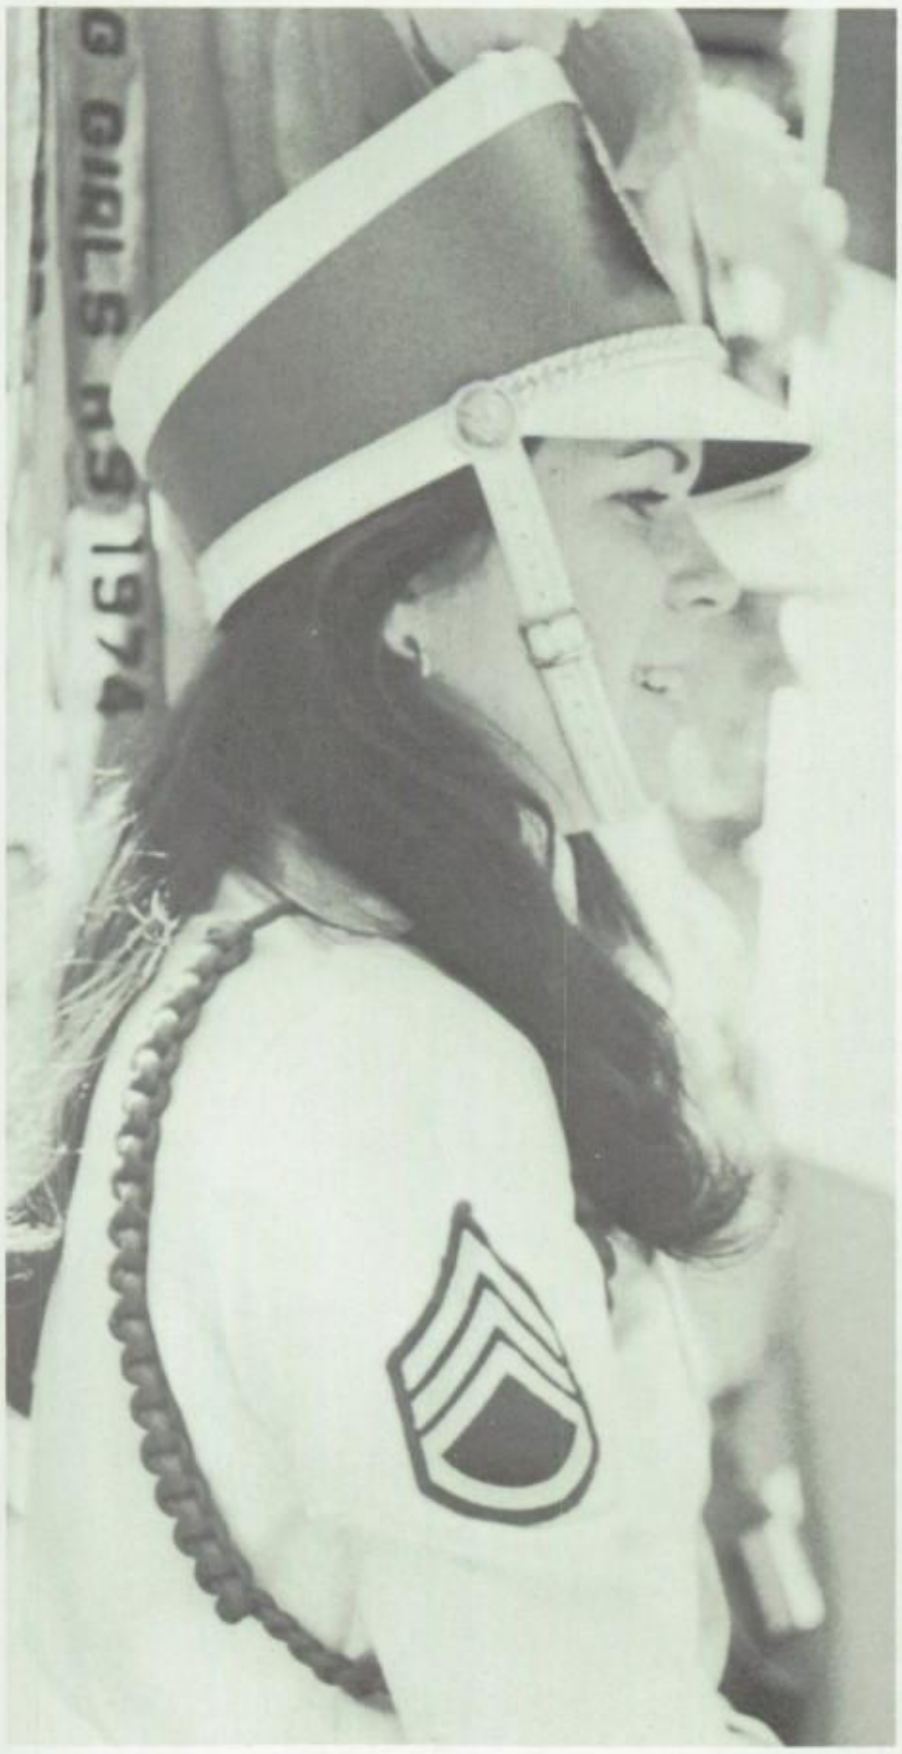
This year's Sophomore Queen Dance, organized by the Juniors, proved to be a festive occasion. Sophomore finalists were escorted to the stage by cadets from Xavier High School as the enthusiastic crowd awaited the results. The ten finalists where chosen after many days of consideration. At left on the opposite page are the runners-up: Sharon Roberts, Lourdes Estevez, Sylvia Vina and Rosa Mondeja. Lydia Rivera, this year's Queen, is surrounded by all the finalists, including Mabel Cabello, Lissette Hernandez, Elsa Rivas, Nina Rangel, as last year's queen Maritza Torres looks on. Not pictured is finalist Toni Render. On this page, the junior judges congratulate Lydia

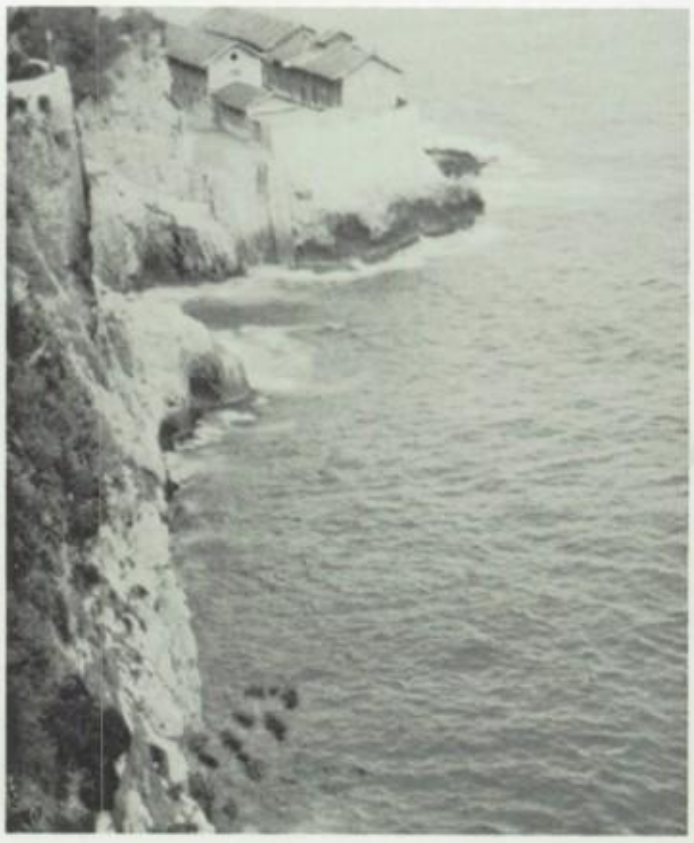
ST. PATRICK'S

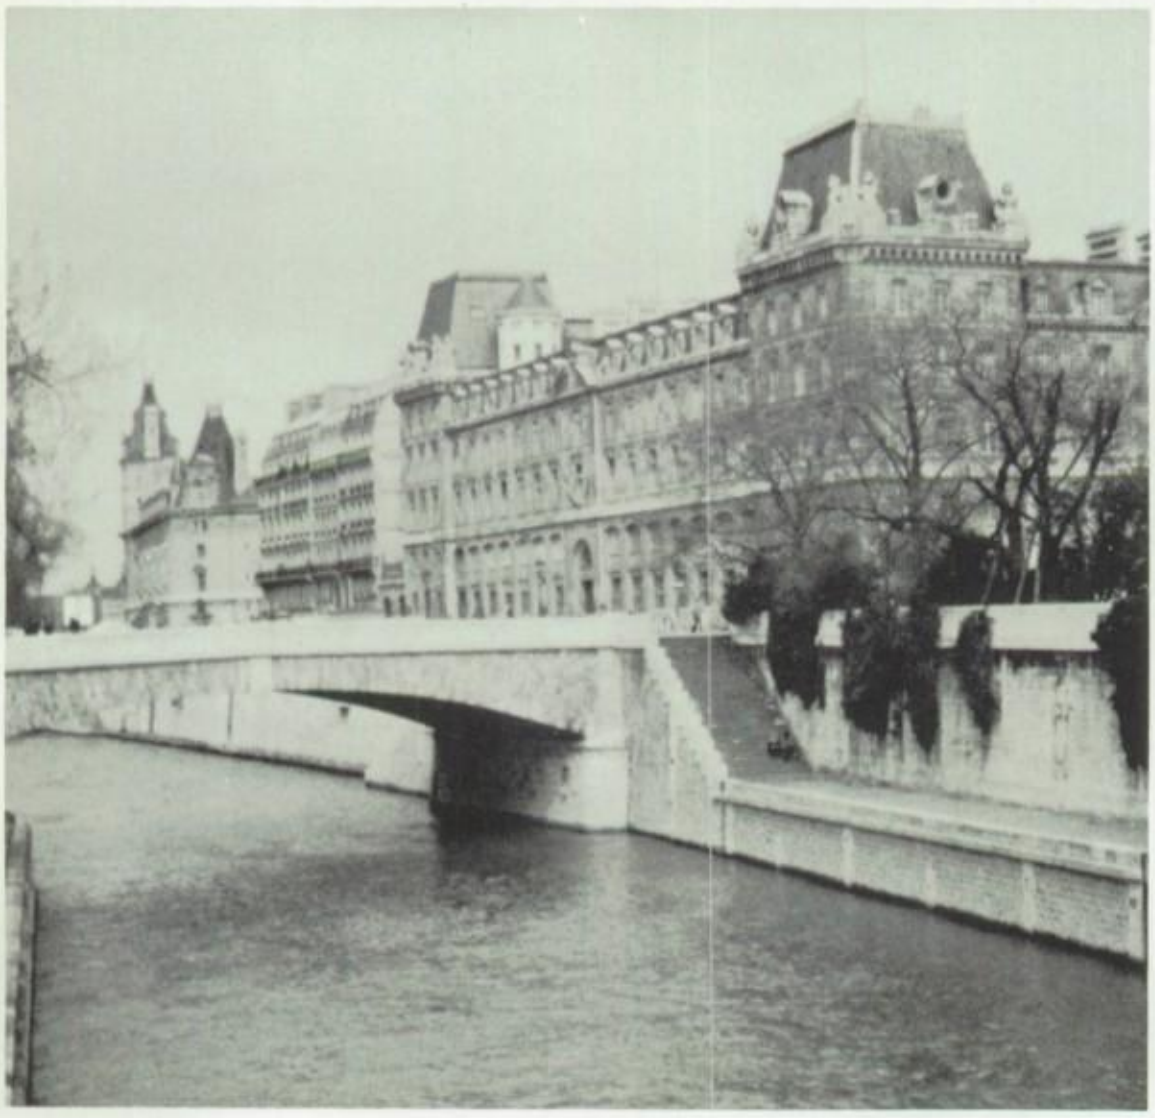
DAY PARADE

For the 19th time in 20 years, Cabrini has won the Cardinal's Trophy as best marching unit in the St. Patrick's Day Parade. The long hours of practice proved worthwhile as our girls drew praise from spectators and TV commentators. Cool, sunny weather made it a great day for a parade.



EASTER IN EUROPE





Once again a group of Cabrini students spent their spring vacation touring Europe with the American Institute of Foreign Study. Ms. Clancy and Ms. Corrigan served as group Counselors. Not a minute of time was wasted as students from all grades visited Paris, Nice, Monte Carlo, Grenoble, Chamonix, San Remo and Geneva. The group ventured up the Eiffel Tower in a slanting elevator and to the top of the Alps in two-seater cable cars. Clear, blue-green mountain streams, the warm, flower-filled Riviera coast, the luxury of Monte Carlo, and a chilly but beautiful night-time cruise on the River Seine were among the many highlights of the tour. Shopping and eating in Italy, endless spiral staircases and our invasion of cafes in France, and a farewell fondue party in Switzerland will long remain in our memories.

DRUM CORPS REVIEW

On May 20, the Cabrini Drum Corps held its annual Review to demonstrate and reward the talents of the students involved. The difficult Elimination Drill Competition ended in a tie between Isabel Acosta and Maria Montes, with Ana Perez finishing highest among the replacements. The Rookies of the Year in each section were Robin Reed (Drums), Miriam Santos (Fifes), Maria Rodriguez (Bells), Irela Moreno (Color Guard) and Ana Lojo (Drum Major). Each section performed special musical selections and marching exhibitions. Maria Montes performed her award winning bell solo. Finally, the corps said farewell to its graduating seniors with the playing of the school song as the corps command passed on from Beth McCallion to Idalia Lopez. All participants and spectators agreed that it was an impressive, memorable evening.

Beginnings . . .

I have perceived that to be with those I like is enough, to stop in company with the rest at evening is enough, to be surrounded by beautiful, curious, breathing, laughing flesh is enough, to pass among them or touch any one or rest my arm ever so lightly round his or her neck for a moment, what is this then? I do not ask any more delight. I swim in it as in a sea.

Walt Whitman

Start shining now — at first a flicker;
a glimmer gradually growing stronger and shedding more light until all around you
is luminous for yourself and for others.
Take pride in that light and let the glow
be the most vivid and splendid flame — a radiant beam to guide us to our new horizons where we change that beam to bold new beacons to light the world . . .

I expect to pass this way but once;
any good therefore that I can do,
or any kindness that I can show to any fellow creature, let me do it now.
Let me not defer or neglect it,
for I shall not pass this way again.
